SESSION #2: MARK HART TALK

Please watch the video link at the bottom of the page and answer the questions to the best of your ability. Please turn your work into Matt Jennerson or Mark Vallone before the due date.

- 1 Mark joked that serving at Mass was the only time he got to “play with fire.” What was he talking about, and why did that matter to his story?

- 2 During incense, he accidentally hit the priest with the thurible. How did that moment change the mood of the church—and why do you think he told that part?

- 3 The first Scripture Mark noticed was 1 Timothy 4:12—how did he notice it, and what does that verse challenge teens to do?

- 4 What’s a “What if...?” question about God or the Eucharist you’re honestly curious about right now?

- 5 Mark wore a bright “JESUS” shirt to public school and got mocked all day—what unexpected thing happened at the end, and what point was he making?

6 Where's the line between being bold about your faith and being showy? How can you tell the difference?

7 Mark contrasted faith and hope: "If faith is believing in God, hope is believing in God's promises for you." What's one promise of God he mentioned?

8 When you're stressed or praying for something that isn't happening, what helps you keep hope instead of giving up?

9 He told a story of a runner getting injured and a father coming to help on the track. How is that an image of what God does for us?

10 Mark said God gives each person unique gifts "for good works." Name one gift or interest you have; how could you use it this week for someone else?

11 At the end he invited everyone to make the Sign of the Cross "slowly and intentionally." What changes when you pray that way on purpose instead of on autopilot?
